The Company

Company Overview

We are a leading independent energy company focused on natural gas and liquids production, transportation, marketing and well retirement, primarily located within the Appalachian and Central regions of the United States. The Appalachian Basin spans Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and Ohio and consists of multiple productive, shallow conventional formations and two productive, deeper unconventional shale formations, the Marcellus Shale and the slightly deeper Utica Shale. We also operate in the Bossier and Haynesville shale formations and the Cotton Valley sandstones in East Texas and West Louisiana, the Barnett Shale in North Texas and the Mid-Continent producing areas across Central Texas, along with the Anadarko Basin across North Texas and Oklahoma and Permian Basin in West Texas and New Mexico.

Our strategy is to acquire existing long-life assets and to make investments in those assets to improve environmental and operational performance under a modern field management philosophy and stewardship-based approach to generate cash flows and maximize shareholder returns. Our shareholder return-focused business model is underpinned by a disciplined commodity hedging strategy that is designed to mitigate downside price risk for the three primary commodity products we produce and sell: natural gas, crude oil and NGLs. We believe the combination of acquiring and operating low decline assets and a disciplined hedging program provides our shareholders with relatively predictable, reliable and sustainable cash flows.

We actively seek to acquire high-quality producing conventional and unconventional natural gas and oil assets from industry participants divesting assets either due to a desire to reallocate capital to other assets and/or to raise cash proceeds. We target long-life producing assets at what we view as attractive valuations, and in our commercial evaluation, we typically attribute substantially all value to the proved developed producing (PDP) reserves and attribute minimal, if any, value to the proved undeveloped reserves. We typically assign no value to probable or possible reserves. Our target assets are characterized by multi-decade production profiles and low decline rates, and we place a particular focus on assets whose value we believe can be enhanced by scale and vertical integration through complementary midstream infrastructure or by our operational and marketing framework.

We focus on improving the performance and operations of assets we acquire, many of which have not received significant operational focus or investment from their former owners. This improvement is achieved through our deployment of rigorous field management programs and/or refreshing infrastructure. Through operational efficiencies, we attempt to maximize value by enhancing production while lowering costs and improving well productivity. These production enhancement techniques also enable us to reduce the methane emissions profile of our wells. We further enhance the value of our assets by leveraging our midstream gathering and transportation infrastructure, which allows us to diversify and expand our third-party revenue, optimize pricing, increase flow assurance and reduce third-party costs and inefficiencies.

Corporate Information

We were incorporated as a public limited company with the legal name Diversified Gas & Oil plc under the laws of the United Kingdom on July 31, 2014 with the company number 09156132. On May 6, 2021, we changed our company name to Diversified Energy Company PLC (“DEC PLC”). On November 21, 2025, the redomiciliation of DEC PLC was implemented by way of a UK court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006 (the “Scheme”). Pursuant to the Scheme, a new U.S. holding company, Diversified Energy Company, became the ultimate parent company of Diversified Energy Company PLC and its consolidated subsidiaries.

As a result of the Scheme, the jurisdiction of incorporation of the ultimate parent company of DEC PLC and its consolidated subsidiaries changed from England and Wales to the State of Delaware. In connection with the Scheme, each holder of one ordinary share (or a depository interest representing an ordinary share) of DEC PLC received one share of common stock (or a depository interest representing a share of common stock) of Diversified Energy Company, par value $0.01 per share.

On November 24, 2025, our shares of common stock commenced trading on the NYSE and were admitted to the Equity Shares (International Commercial Companies Secondary Listing) of the Official List and to trading on the LSE’s main market for listed securities under the symbol “DEC,” which was the same trading symbol previously used by DEC PLC’s ordinary shares.

Our registered office is located at 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801. Our principal executive offices are located at 1600 Corporate Drive, Birmingham, Alabama 35242, and our telephone number at that location is +1 (205) 408-0909. Our website address is www.div.energy. The information contained on, or that can be accessed from, our website does not form part of this prospectus supplement. We have included our website address solely as an inactive textual reference.

Recent Developments

On February 26, 2026, Diversified Production LLC (“Diversified”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a purchase and sale agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with Sheridan Holding Company III, LLC (the “Seller”) pursuant to which Diversified agreed to acquire certain oil and natural gas wells, leasehold interests and related assets located in certain counties in east Texas, including Cherokee, Harrison, Nacogdoches, Panola, and Rusk Counties (the “Assets”). The acquisition is expected to be funded through borrowings under the Company’s senior secured bank facility and is subject to customary closing conditions. Diversified expects to close the transaction in the second quarter of 2026.

Under the Purchase Agreement, Diversified will pay an aggregate purchase price of approximately $248 million, subject to adjustment pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by the parties. The obligations of Diversified and the Seller to consummate the acquisition are subject to customary closing conditions. Upon closing, Diversified will assume certain liabilities associated with the Assets, including environmental and plugging and abandonment obligations, as provided in the Purchase Agreement.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described below, together with all of the other information included in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying base prospectus, including the section titled “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” in this prospectus supplement, and the section titled “Risk Factors” and our audited consolidated financial statements and related notes, in each case included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025, filed with the SEC on February 26, 2026, which are each incorporated by reference herein, before deciding to invest in our common stock. Additional risks not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our business operations. Our business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially and adversely affected by any of the following risks or additional risks and uncertainties that are currently immaterial or unknown. The trading price and value of our common stock could decline due to any of these risks, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

The price of our common stock may be volatile and may fluctuate due to factors beyond our control.

The public offering price for shares of our common stock will be determined through negotiations between the underwriter and the selling stockholders and may vary from the market price of shares of our common stock following this offering. If you purchase shares of common stock in this offering, you may not be able to resell those shares of common stock at or above the public offering price. The market price of shares of our common stock may fluctuate significantly due to a variety of factors, including:

- operating results that vary from our financial guidance or the expectations of securities analysts and investors;
- changes in natural gas, NGL or oil prices;
- the operating and securities price performance of companies that investors consider to be comparable to us;
- announcements of strategic developments, acquisitions and other material events by us or our competitors;
- failure to meet or exceed financial estimates and projections of the investment community or that we provide to the public;
- initial issuance of new or updated research or reports by securities analysts; changes in government regulations;
- financing or other corporate transactions;
- the loss of any of our key personnel;
- sales of shares of our common stock by us, our executive officers and Board members or our shareholders in the future, or the perception that such sales may occur;
- speculation in the press or investment community;
- domestic and international economic, geopolitical, and legal factors unrelated to our performance;
- price and volume fluctuations in the overall stock market, including as a result of trends in the economy as a whole; and
- other events and factors, many of which are beyond our control.

These and other market and industry factors may cause the market price and demand for shares of our common stock to fluctuate substantially, regardless of our actual operating performance, which may limit or prevent investors from readily selling their common stock and may otherwise materially and adversely affect the liquidity of our common stock. In the past, when the market price of a stock has been volatile, holders of that stock have sometimes instituted securities class action litigation against the issuer. If any of the holders of shares of our common stock were to bring such a lawsuit against us, we could incur substantial costs defending the lawsuit and the attention of our senior management would be diverted from the operation of our business. Any adverse determination in litigation could also subject us to significant liabilities.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Future sales, or the possibility of future sales, of a substantial number of shares of our common stock could adversely affect the price of our common stock.

Future sales of a substantial number of shares of our common stock, or the perception that such sales will occur, could cause a decline in the market price of our common stock. We may, in our sole discretion, release all or any portion of the equity securities subject to the lock-up agreements prior to the expiration of the lock-up agreements. If, after the end of such lock-up agreements, these shareholders sell substantial amounts of common stock in the public market, or the market perceives that such sales may occur, the market price of our common stock and our ability to raise capital through an issue of equity securities in the future could be adversely affected.

There is no guarantee that we will continue to pay dividends on our common stock in the future.

The decision of our board of directors to recommend and our ability to pay dividends is dependent upon our performance and financial condition, cash requirements, future prospects, commodity prices, compliance with the financial covenants and restrictions under the terms of certain of our credit facilities, profits available for distribution and other factors deemed to be relevant at the time and on the continued health of the markets in which we operate. Further, as a company listed on both the NYSE and the LSE, while our board of directors' evaluation of our ability or need to pay dividends will primarily remain a question of the foregoing factors, it will also take into account the performance of our common stock, including relative to our peer group. There can be no guarantee that we will continue to pay dividends in the future on our common stock.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of common stock offered by the selling stockholders. The selling stockholders will receive all of the net proceeds from the sale of shares of this common stock. See the section of this prospectus supplement entitled “Selling Stockholders.”

We will not be selling any shares of common stock in this offering. Therefore, the offering will not result in any dilution of equity ownership to our existing stockholders.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

In connection with this offering, the Company has waived the lock-up restrictions previously applicable to 4,872,452 shares of common stock held by the selling stockholders, that was previously scheduled to expire on March 14, 2026. Such waiver is effective as of March 9, 2026.

The following table sets forth (i) the names of the selling stockholders, (ii) the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by each selling stockholder as of February 25, 2026, (iii) the number of shares of common stock to be offered by each selling stockholder pursuant to this prospectus supplement and (iv) the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by each selling stockholder assuming all common stock offered by each such selling stockholder is sold in this offering. We have determined beneficial ownership in accordance with SEC rules. In computing the number of shares beneficially owned by the selling stockholders and the percentage ownership of the selling stockholders, the number of shares of common stock subject to options or warrants held by the selling stockholders that are currently exercisable or that will become exercisable within 60 days of February 25, 2026 are deemed outstanding.

The percentages reflect beneficial ownership immediately prior, and immediately after giving effect, to completion of the offering, based on 76,070,756 shares of common stock outstanding as of February 25, 2026, which includes 7,501,585 common stock to be sold by the selling stockholders. Upon completion of this offering, each of the selling stockholders will cease to beneficially own any shares of our common stock.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders and Non-U.S. Holders (each, as defined below) of the purchase, ownership and disposition of a share of common stock issued pursuant to this offering, but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential U.S. federal tax consequences. The consequences of other U.S. federal tax laws, such as estate and gift tax laws, and any applicable state, local, or non-U.S. tax laws are not discussed herein. This discussion is based on the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions and administrative interpretations of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”), in each case in effect as of the date hereof. These authorities may change or be subject to differing interpretations. Any such change or differing interpretation may be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a holder of a share of common stock. We have not sought and will not seek any rulings from the IRS regarding the matters discussed below. There can be no assurance that the IRS or a court will not take a contrary position to the description below of the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of our common stock.

This discussion is limited to U.S. Holders and Non-U.S. Holders that each hold a share of common stock as a “capital asset” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all U.S. federal income tax consequences relevant to a holder’s particular circumstances, including the impact of the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income and the alternative minimum tax. In addition, it does not address consequences relevant to holders subject to special rules, including, without limitation:

- U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;
- persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;
- persons holding a share of common stock as part of a hedge, straddle or other risk reduction strategy or as part of a conversion transaction or other integrated investment;
- banks, insurance companies, regulated investment companies, mutual funds and other financial institutions;
- brokers, dealers or traders in securities or foreign currencies;
- “controlled foreign corporations,” “passive foreign investment companies,” and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- partnerships or other entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes and other pass-through entities (and investors therein);
- tax-exempt organizations or governmental organizations;
- persons deemed to sell a share of common stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code;
- persons who hold or receive a share of common stock pursuant to the exercise of any employee stock option or otherwise as compensation;
- tax-qualified retirement plans;
- “qualified foreign pension funds” as defined in Section 897(l)(2) of the Code and entities of all the interests of which are held by qualified foreign pension funds; and
- Non-U.S. Holders who will own directly, indirectly or constructively more than 5% of our common stock.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds a share of common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will depend on the status of the partner, the activities of the partnership and certain determinations made at the partner level. Accordingly, partnerships holding a share of common stock and the partners in such partnerships should consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them.

THIS DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF A SHARE OF COMMON STOCK ARISING UNDER THE U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS OR UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE INCOME TAX TREATY.

U.S. Holders

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. Holder” is any beneficial owner of a share of common stock that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is or is treated as any of the following:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust that (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and the control of one or more “United States persons” (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code), or (2) has a valid election in effect to be treated as a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Distributions

Distributions, if any, made on the shares of common stock, generally will be included in a U.S. Holder’s income as ordinary dividend income to the extent of the Company’s current or accumulated earnings and profits. Distributions in excess of the Company’s current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated as a tax-free return of capital to the extent of a U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the shares of common stock and thereafter as capital gain from the sale or exchange of such shares of common stock. Dividends received by a corporate U.S. Holder may be eligible for a dividends-received deduction, subject to applicable limitations. Dividends received by certain non-corporate U.S. Holders (including individuals) are generally taxed at the lower applicable long-term capital gains rates, provided certain holding period and other requirements are satisfied.

Sales, Certain Redemptions or Other Taxable Dispositions of Common Stock

Upon the sale, certain redemptions or other taxable dispositions of a share of common stock, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized and the U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the shares of common stock. Any gain or loss recognized on a taxable disposition of a share of common stock will be capital gain or loss. Such capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if a U.S. Holder’s holding period at the time of the sale, redemption or other taxable disposition of the shares of common stock is longer than one year. Long-term capital gains recognized by certain non-corporate U.S. Holders (including individuals) are generally subject to a reduced rate of U.S. federal income tax. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Foreign Currency

The amount of any distributions paid to a U.S. Holder in foreign currency, or the amount of proceeds paid in foreign currency on the sale, redemption or other disposition of our common stock, generally will be equal to the U.S. dollar value of such foreign currency based on the exchange rate applicable on the date of receipt (regardless of whether such foreign currency is converted into U.S. dollars at that time). A U.S. Holder will have a basis in the foreign currency equal to its U.S. dollar value on the date of receipt. Any U.S. Holder that converts or otherwise disposes of the foreign currency after the date of receipt may have a foreign currency exchange gain or loss that would be treated as ordinary income or loss, and generally will be U.S. source income or loss for foreign tax credit purposes. Different rules apply to U.S. Holders that use the accrual method of tax accounting. A U.S. Holder that recognizes foreign currency exchange loss with respect to our common stock would be required to report the loss on IRS Form 8886 (Reportable Transaction Disclosure Statement) if the loss exceeds the thresholds set forth in the applicable Treasury Regulations. For individuals and trusts, this loss threshold is $50,000 in any single year. For other types of taxpayers, the thresholds are higher. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the rules concerning foreign currency exchange gain or loss.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Non-U.S. Holders

For purposes of this discussion, a “Non-U.S. Holder” is any beneficial owner of a share of common stock that is neither a U.S. Holder nor an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Distributions

If the Company makes distributions of cash or property on the shares of common stock, such distributions will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid from the Company’s current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. Amounts not treated as dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes will constitute a return of capital and will first be applied against and reduce a Non-U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in its common stock, but not below zero. Generally, a distribution that constitutes a return of capital will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 15% if the Non-U.S. Holders’ common stock constitute a USRPI (as defined below). However, a U.S. withholding rate of up to 30% of the entire amount of the distribution may apply, even if the Non-U.S. Holders’ shares of common stock do not constitute a USRPI. For additional information regarding when a Non-U.S. Holder may treat its ownership of the shares of common stock as not constituting a USRPI, see below under the subsection titled “—Sale or Other Taxable Disposition.” However, because a Non-U.S. Holder would not have any U.S. federal income tax liability with respect to a return of capital distribution, a Non-U.S. Holder would be entitled to request a refund of any U.S. federal income tax that is withheld from a return of capital distribution (generally by timely filing a U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year in which the tax was withheld). Any excess will be treated as capital gain and will be treated as described below under the subsection titled “—Sale or Other Taxable Disposition.”

Subject to the discussion below on effectively connected income, dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder of a share of common stock will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30% of the gross amount of the dividends (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty, provided the Non-U.S. Holder furnishes a valid IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or other applicable documentation) certifying qualification for a lower treaty rate). A Non-U.S. Holder that does not timely furnish the required documentation, but that qualifies for a reduced treaty rate, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

If dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, the Non-U.S. Holder maintains a permanent establishment in the United States to which such dividends are attributable), the Non-U.S. Holder will be exempt from the U.S. federal withholding tax described above. To claim the exemption, the Non-U.S. Holder must furnish to the applicable withholding agent a valid IRS Form W-8ECI, certifying that the dividends are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business within the United States.

Any such effectively connected dividends will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular rates. A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation also may be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such effectively connected dividends, as adjusted for certain items. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding any applicable tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

Sale or Other Taxable Disposition

Subject to the discussion below on information reporting, backup withholding and FATCA (as defined below), a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized upon the sale or other taxable disposition of a share of common stock unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, the Non-U.S. Holder maintains a permanent establishment in the United States to which such gain is attributable);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a nonresident alien individual present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year of the disposition and certain other requirements are met; or

- our common stock constitutes a United States real property interest (“USRPI”) because we are (or have been during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of the disposition or the Non-U.S. Holder’s holding period) a U.S. real property holding corporation (“USRPHC”) for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Gain described in the first bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular rates. A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation also may be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such effectively connected gain, as adjusted for certain items.

A Non-U.S. Holder described in the second bullet point above will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on gain realized upon the sale or other taxable disposition of our common stock, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses of the Non-U.S. Holder (even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States), provided the Non-U.S. Holder has timely filed U.S. federal income tax returns with respect to such losses.

With respect to the third bullet point above, due to the nature of our assets and operations, the Company believes it is (and will continue to be) a USRPHC under the Code and the shares of our common stock constitute (and will continue to constitute) a USRPI. Non-U.S. Holders generally are subject to a 15% withholding tax on the amount realized from a sale or other taxable disposition of a USRPI, such as our common stock, which is required to be collected from any sale or disposition proceeds. Furthermore, such Non-U.S. Holders are subject to U.S. federal income tax (at the regular rates) in respect of any gain on their sale or disposition of our common stock and are required to file a U.S. tax return to report such gain and pay any tax liability that is not satisfied by withholding. Any gain should be determined in U.S. dollars, based on the excess, if any, of the U.S. dollar value of the consideration received over the Non-U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the common stock determined in U.S. dollars under the rules applicable to Non-U.S. Holders. A Non-U.S. Holder may, by filing a U.S. tax return, be able to claim a refund for any withholding tax deducted in excess of the tax liability on any gain. However, if shares of our common stock are considered “regularly traded on an established securities market” (within the meaning of the Treasury Regulations), then Non-U.S. Holders will not be subject to the 15% withholding tax on the disposition of their common stock, even if such shares of our common stock constitute USRPIs. Moreover, if shares of our common stock are considered “regularly traded on an established securities market” (within the meaning of the Treasury Regulations) and the Non-U.S. Holder actually or constructively owns or owned, at all times during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of the disposition or the Non-U.S. Holder’s holding period, 5% or less of the shares of our common stock taking into account applicable constructive ownership rules, such Non-U.S. Holder may treat its ownership of our common stock as not constituting a USRPI and will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized upon the sale or other taxable disposition of our common stock or U.S. tax return filing requirements. The Company expects the shares of our common stock to be treated as “regularly traded on an established securities market” (within the meaning of the Treasury Regulations) so long as the shares of our common stock are listed on the NYSE and regularly quoted by brokers or dealers making a market in such common stock.

Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding tax consequences of our treatment as a USRPHC and regarding potentially applicable income tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

U.S. Holders

Information reporting requirements generally will apply to payments of distributions on the shares of common stock and the proceeds of a sale of a share of common stock paid to a U.S. Holder unless the U.S. Holder is an exempt recipient and, if requested, certifies as to that status. Backup withholding generally will apply to those payments if the U.S. Holder fails to provide an appropriate certification with its correct taxpayer identification number or certification of exempt status. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against a U.S. Holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Non-U.S. Holders

Payments of dividends on the shares of common stock will not be subject to backup withholding, provided the applicable withholding agent does not have actual knowledge or reason to know the Non-U.S. Holder is a

TABLE OF CONTENTS

United States person and the Non-U.S. Holder either certifies its non-U.S. status, such as by furnishing a valid IRS Form W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E or W-8ECI, or otherwise establishes an exemption. However, information returns are required to be filed with the IRS in connection with any distributions on our common stock paid to the Non-U.S. Holder, regardless of whether such distributions constitute dividends or whether any tax was actually withheld. In addition, proceeds of the sale or other taxable disposition of our common stock within the United States or conducted through certain U.S.-related brokers generally will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting if the applicable withholding agent receives the certification described above and does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that such holder is a United States person or the holder otherwise establishes an exemption. Proceeds of a disposition of our common stock conducted through a non-U.S. office of a non-U.S. broker generally will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting.

Copies of information returns that are filed with the IRS may also be made available under the provisions of an applicable treaty or agreement to the tax authorities of the country in which the Non-U.S. Holder resides or is established.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Additional Withholding Tax on Payments Made to Foreign Accounts

Withholding taxes may be imposed under Sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code (such Sections commonly referred to as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or "FATCA") on certain types of payments made to non-U.S. financial institutions and certain other non-U.S. entities. Specifically, a 30% withholding tax may be imposed on dividends on, or (subject to the proposed Treasury Regulations discussed below) gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of, our common stock paid to a "foreign financial institution" or a "non-financial foreign entity" (each as defined in the Code), unless (1) the foreign financial institution undertakes certain diligence and reporting obligations, (2) the non-financial foreign entity either certifies it does not have any "substantial United States owners" (as defined in the Code) or furnishes identifying information regarding each substantial United States owner, or (3) the foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity otherwise qualifies for an exemption from these rules. If the payee is a foreign financial institution and is subject to the diligence and reporting requirements in (1) above, it must enter into an agreement with the U.S. Department of the Treasury requiring, among other things, that it undertake to identify accounts held by certain "specified United States persons" or "United States owned foreign entities" (each as defined in the Code), annually report certain information about such accounts and withhold 30% on certain payments to non-compliant foreign financial institutions and certain other account holders. Foreign financial institutions located in jurisdictions that have an intergovernmental agreement with the United States governing FATCA may be subject to different rules.

Under the applicable Treasury Regulations and administrative guidance, withholding under FATCA generally applies to payments of dividends on our common stock. While withholding under FATCA would have applied also to payments of gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of stock, including our common stock, proposed Treasury Regulations eliminate FATCA withholding on payments of gross proceeds entirely. Taxpayers generally may rely on these proposed Treasury Regulations until they are revoked or final Treasury Regulations are issued.

Prospective investors should consult their tax advisors regarding the potential application of withholding under FATCA to their investment in our common stock.

UNDERWRITING

Citigroup Global Markets Inc. is acting as the sole book-running manager in this offering. The Company and the selling stockholders have entered into an underwriting agreement with the underwriter. Subject to the terms and conditions stated in the underwriting agreement dated the date of this prospectus supplement, the underwriter has agreed to purchase, and the selling stockholders have agreed to sell to the underwriter, 7,501,585 shares of common stock, which includes 3,750,000 shares of our common stock that we have agreed to repurchase from the underwriter.

The underwriting agreement provides that the obligations of the underwriter to purchase the shares of common stock included in this offering are subject to approval of legal matters by counsel and to other conditions. The underwriter is obligated to purchase all the shares of common stock if it purchases any of the shares of common stock.

Subject to the completion of this offering, we have agreed to purchase from the underwriter 3,750,000 shares of common stock offered hereby at a price per share equal to the price per share paid by the underwriter to the selling stockholders in this offering, as part of our existing stock repurchase program. The closing of the offering is not conditioned upon the completion of the Share Repurchase. See “Summary—Share Repurchase.”

The underwriter proposes to offer the shares of common stock for sale from time to time in one or more transactions on the NYSE, in the over-the-counter market, through negotiated transactions or otherwise at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices, subject to receipt and acceptance by the underwriter and subject to its right to reject any order in whole or in part. The underwriter may effect such transactions by selling the shares of common stock to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriter and/or purchasers of shares of common stock for whom they act as agents or to whom they sell as principal. The difference between the price at which the underwriter purchases shares and the price at which the underwriter sells such shares of common stock may be deemed underwriting compensation.

We, our directors and certain of our officers, have agreed that for a period of 30 days from the date of this prospectus supplement and subject to certain exceptions, not to offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge, hedge, grant any option to purchase or otherwise dispose of any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of our common stock, without the prior written consent of the underwriter. One such exception includes our ability to issue shares of our common stock in connection with a merger and/or acquisitions without consent of the underwriter.

Our shares of common stock trade on the NYSE under the symbol “DEC” and are also admitted to listing on the Official List of the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority and are admitted to trading on the LSE, under the symbol “DEC.”

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 14, 2025, by and among the Company, the selling stockholders, other signatories party thereto, and solely for purposes of Section 2.8 therein, Diversified Gas & Oil Corporation (“DGOC”), DGOC agreed to pay certain expenses relating to the registration and offering of these shares, and each selling stockholder agreed to pay its pro rata share of underwriting fees, discounts and commissions, placement fees of the underwriter, broker commissions, transfer taxes and certain attorney’s fees not covered by DGOC. We estimate that our out-of-pocket expenses for this offering will be approximately $350,000.

In connection with the offering, the underwriter may purchase and sell shares of our common stock in the open market. Purchases and sales in the open market may include short sales, purchases to cover short positions and stabilizing purchases.

- Short sales involve secondary market sales by the underwriter of a greater number of shares of common stock than it is required to purchase in the offering.
- Covering transactions involve purchases of shares of common stock in the open market after the distribution has been completed in order to cover short positions.
 - To close a short position, the underwriter must purchase shares of common stock in the open market after the distribution has been completed. A short position is more likely to be created if the underwriter is concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the shares of common stock in the open market after pricing that could adversely affect investors who purchase in the offering.

- Stabilizing transactions involve bids to purchase common stock so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.

Purchases to cover short positions and stabilizing purchases, as well as other purchases by the underwriter for its own account, may have the effect of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the shares of common stock. They may also cause the price of the shares of common stock to be higher than the price that would otherwise exist in the open market in the absence of these transactions. The underwriter may conduct these transactions on the NYSE, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise. If the underwriter commences any of these transactions, it may discontinue them at any time.

The underwriter and its affiliates have performed commercial banking, investment banking and advisory services for us from time to time for which it had received customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. The underwriter and its affiliates may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for us, certain of the selling stockholders and our and their respective affiliates in the ordinary course of its business for which it may receive customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. In addition, affiliates of the underwriter are lenders, and in some cases agents or managers for the lenders, under our certain of credit facilities.

We have agreed to indemnify the underwriter against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments the underwriter may be required to make because of any of those liabilities.

The sellers of the common stock have not authorized and do not authorize the making of any offer of the common stock through any financial intermediary on their behalf, other than offers made by the underwriter with a view to the final placement of the common stock as contemplated in this prospectus supplement. Accordingly, no purchaser of the common stock, other than the underwriter, is authorized to make any further offer of the common stock on behalf of the sellers or the underwriter.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

This prospectus is a part of an automatic shelf registration statement on Form S-3 that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC” or the “Commission”) as a “well-known seasoned issuer” as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), using a “shelf” registration process. Under this process, the selling stockholders may offer and sell from time to time the Securities described in this prospectus in one or more offerings in amounts to be determined at the time of any offering.

This prospectus provides you with a general description of the Securities the selling stockholders may offer. Each time the selling stockholders offer Securities, we will provide a supplement to this prospectus that will contain specific information about the terms of that offering, including the specific amounts, prices and terms of the Securities offered, the manner of distribution, the identity of any underwriters or other counterparties and other specific terms related to the offering. The prospectus supplement may also add, update or change information contained in this prospectus. You should carefully read this prospectus, any prospectus supplement and any free writing prospectus by or on behalf of us, together with the additional information under the headings “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference.”

Neither we nor the selling stockholders have authorized anyone to provide you with any information other than that contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, any applicable prospectus supplement and any free writing prospectus prepared by or on behalf of us. Neither we nor the selling stockholders take any responsibility for, and can provide no assurance as to the reliability of, any other information that others may give you. Neither we nor the selling stockholders are making offers to sell the Securities in any jurisdiction in which an offer or solicitation is not authorized or in which the person making such offer or solicitation is not qualified to do so or to anyone to whom it is unlawful to make an offer or solicitation.

The information in this prospectus is accurate as of the date on the front cover. You should not assume that the information contained in this prospectus is accurate as of any other date.

Except where the context otherwise requires or where otherwise indicated, the terms “Diversified Energy,” the “Company,” the “Group,” “DEC,” “we,” “us,” “our company” and “our business” refer to Diversified Energy Company, together with its predecessors and its consolidated subsidiaries.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, any prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein contain forward-looking statements or information (collectively, “forward-looking statements”) within the meaning of applicable securities legislation, including Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). All statements, except for statements of historical fact, that relate to the anticipated future activities, plans, strategies, objectives or expectations of the Company are forward-looking statements. When used in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated herein by reference, the use of words and phrases including “may,” “might,” “will,” “could,” “would,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “seek,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “continue,” “contemplate,” “possible,” or the negative of these terms or other variations or comparable terminology, or by discussions of strategy, plans, objectives, goals, future events or intentions. These forward-looking statements include all matters that are not historical facts. They include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our intentions, beliefs or current expectations concerning, among other things, our results of operations, financial positions, liquidity, prospects, growth, strategies and the natural gas and oil industry. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and the actual results of our operations, financial position and liquidity, and the development of the markets and the industry in which we operate, may differ materially from those described in, or suggested by, the forward-looking statements. In addition, even if the results of operations, financial position and liquidity, and the development of the markets and the industry in which we operate are consistent with the forward-looking statements, those results or developments may not be indicative of results or developments in subsequent periods. A number of factors could cause results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements including, without limitation, general economic and business conditions, the behavior of other market participants, industry trends, competition, commodity prices, changes in regulation, currency fluctuations, our ability to recover our reserves, our ability to successfully integrate acquisitions, our ability to obtain financing to meet liquidity needs, changes in our business strategy, political and economic uncertainty.

Forward-looking statements may, and often do, differ materially from actual results. Any forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of such statements were made, reflect our then current view with respect to future events and are subject to risks relating to future events and other risks, uncertainties and assumptions relating to our operations, results of operations, growth strategy and liquidity. Investors should specifically consider the factors identified in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein, including Item 1A. Risk Factors of the Annual Report on Form 10-K, which could cause actual results to differ before making an investment decision. Subject to the requirements of applicable law, we explicitly disclaim any obligation or undertaking to revise any forward-looking statements that may occur due to any change in our expectations or to reflect events or circumstances after the date such forward-looking statements were made except as may be required by applicable law.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our Securities involves risk. Before investing in our Securities, you should carefully consider all of the information included in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein, and the risks discussed under the caption “Risk Factors” in any prospectus supplement and our Annual Report on Form 10-K with the SEC and any subsequent updates and other reports and documents we file with the SEC, which are incorporated by reference herein and in any prospectus supplement and may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the SEC in the future. Please see “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference.” Additional risks not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our business operations. Our business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially and adversely affected by any of such risks or additional risks and uncertainties that are currently immaterial or unknown. The trading price and value of our Securities could decline due to any of these risks, and you may lose all or part of your investment. Please see “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.”

Information on, or that is accessible from, our website, even if referred to in documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus, does not constitute part of this prospectus.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We are registering the resale of the 7,501,585 shares of common stock offered by the selling stockholders. All of the shares of common stock offered by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus will be sold by them. We are not selling any securities under this prospectus and will not receive any proceeds from the sales covered hereby. The net proceeds from the sale of the common stock will be received by the selling stockholders.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following is a description of the material terms of our capital stock and provisions of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the “Certificate of Incorporation”) and Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Bylaws”) as currently in effect and certain provisions of Delaware law. The following description may not contain all of the information that is important to you, and we therefore refer you to our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, copies of which are filed with the SEC as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. For more information on how you can obtain our Certificate of Incorporation and our Bylaws, see the heading “Where You Can Find More Information.”

Under the Certificate of Incorporation, we are authorized to issue up to 350,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 30,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share.

Common Stock

Voting Rights

The holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters on which stockholders are generally entitled to vote; provided, however, that, except as otherwise required by law, holders of common stock, as such, are not entitled to vote on any amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation that relates solely to the terms of one or more outstanding series of preferred stock if the holders of such affected series are entitled, either separately or together with the holders of one or more other such series, to vote thereon pursuant to the Certificate of Incorporation. Holders of our common stock do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. Accordingly, the holders of a majority of the combined voting power of our common stock could, if they so choose, elect all the directors.

Dividends

Subject to the rights of the holders of any outstanding series of preferred stock, holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends to the extent permitted by law when, as and if declared by our board of directors.

Liquidation

Upon our dissolution, liquidation or winding up, subject to the rights of the holders of any outstanding series of preferred stock, the holders of shares of common stock are entitled to receive our assets available for distribution to our stockholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares held by them.

Other Matters

The Certificate of Incorporation does not entitle holders of our common stock to preemptive or conversion rights or other subscription rights. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to our common stock. All outstanding shares of our common stock are fully paid and non-assessable.

Preferred Stock

Unless required by law or by any stock exchange on which our common stock may be listed, the authorized shares of preferred stock will be available for issuance without further action by our stockholders. Delaware law does not require stockholder approval for any issuance of authorized shares. However, the listing requirements of the NYSE, which apply as long as our common stock is listed on NYSE, require stockholder approval of certain issuances equal to or exceeding 20% of the combined voting power of our common stock and certain issuances to related parties. These additional shares may be used for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, acquisitions and employee benefit plans.

Our Certificate of Incorporation authorizes our board of directors to establish from time to time the number of shares to be included in each series of preferred stock, and to fix the designation, powers, preferences, and relative, participating, optional or other rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, if any, of the shares of each series of preferred stock. Our board of directors is also able to increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of any series of preferred stock (but not below the number of shares of that series of preferred stock then outstanding) without any further vote or action by the stockholders.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

As of December 31, 2025, no shares of preferred stock were outstanding. If we offer shares of preferred stock pursuant to this prospectus, the specific terms of the preferred stock will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Delaware Law, the Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws

Certain provisions of Delaware law, the Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws could make the acquisition of our Company more difficult and could delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or other takeover attempt that a stockholder might consider to be in its best interest, including takeover attempts that might result in the payment of a premium to stockholders over the market price for their shares. These provisions also may promote the continuity of our management by making it more difficult for a person to remove or change the incumbent members of our board of directors.

Authorized but Unissued Shares; Undesignated Preferred Stock. The authorized but unissued shares of our common stock are available for future issuance without stockholder approval, except as required by law or by any stock exchange on which our common stock may be listed. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, acquisitions and employee benefit plans. In addition, our board of directors may authorize, without stockholder approval, the issuance of undesignated preferred stock with voting rights or other rights or preferences designated from time to time by our board of directors. The existence of authorized but unissued shares of common stock or preferred stock may enable our board of directors to render more difficult or to discourage an attempt to obtain control of us by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise.

No Cumulative Voting. Holders of our common stock do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Special Meetings of Stockholders. The Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws provide that special meetings of our stockholders (1) may be called at any time by our board of directors; and (2) shall be called by our secretary upon the written request or requests of one or more persons that: (a) own (as defined in the Bylaws) shares representing at least 25% of the voting power of the stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the matter or matters to be brought before the proposed special meeting as of the record date fixed in accordance with the Bylaws to determine who may deliver a written request to call the special meeting; and (b) comply with such procedures for calling a special meeting of stockholders as may be set forth in the Bylaws and amended from time to time. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to our notice of meeting.

Stockholder Action by Written Consent. Pursuant to Section 228 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the “DGCL”), any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares of our stock entitled to vote thereon were present and voted, unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. The Certificate of Incorporation precludes stockholder action by written consent.

Advance Notice Requirements for Stockholder Proposals and Nomination of Directors. The Bylaws require stockholders seeking to bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders, or to nominate individuals for election as directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, to provide timely notice in writing. To be timely, a stockholder’s notice must be delivered to the secretary at our principal executive offices not later than the close of business on the 90th day nor earlier than the close of business on the 120th day, prior to the anniversary of the preceding year’s annual meeting. However, in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, such notice will be timely only if delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the date on which a public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is first made by us. The Bylaws also specify requirements as to the form and content of a stockholder’s notice. These provisions may preclude our stockholders from bringing matters before our annual meeting of stockholders or from making nominations for directors at our meetings of stockholders. These provisions may also discourage or deter a potential acquiror from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect the potential acquiror’s own slate of directors or otherwise attempting to obtain control of our company.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Removal of Directors; Vacancies. The Certificate of Incorporation provides that directors may be removed with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, provided, however, that when the holders of any class or series of preferred stock are entitled to elect one or more directors pursuant to the Certificate of Incorporation, with respect to the removal without cause of a director or directors so elected, the vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of that class or series, and not the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole, shall apply. In addition, the Certificate of Incorporation also provides that any newly created directorship on our board of directors resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors and any vacancies in our board of directors may be filled solely by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, even though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director.

Amendments to the Bylaws and the Certificate of Incorporation. The Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws provide that our board of directors is expressly authorized to adopt, amend or repeal the Bylaws without a stockholder vote.

The DGCL provides generally that the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, voting together as a single class, is required to amend a corporation's certificate of incorporation, unless the certificate of incorporation requires a greater percentage. The Certificate of Incorporation provides that the affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% of the voting power of the stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, voting together as a single class, is required to amend or repeal, or adopt any provision inconsistent with, the following provisions in the Certificate of Incorporation, among others:

- the provisions regarding our board of directors;
- the provisions precluding stockholder action by written consent;

Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. We are subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL regulating corporate takeovers. In general, those provisions prohibit a Delaware corporation, including those whose securities are listed for trading on the NYSE, from engaging in any business combination with any interested stockholder for a period of three years following the date that the stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

- before the person became an interested stockholder, our board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction in which the interested stockholder became an interested stockholder;
- upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of our voting stock outstanding at the time the transaction commenced (other than statutorily excluded shares); or
- on or after the date the interested stockholder attained that status, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at a meeting of stockholders by at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder.

An interested stockholder is defined as a person who, together with any affiliates or associates of such person, beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 15% or more of the outstanding voting shares of a Delaware corporation. The term "business combination" is broadly defined to include a broad array of transactions, including mergers, consolidations, sales or other dispositions of assets having a total value in excess of 10% of the consolidated assets of the corporation or all of the outstanding stock of the corporation, and some other transactions that would increase the interested stockholder's proportionate share ownership in the corporation.

Exclusive Forum. The Certificate of Incorporation provides that, unless we consent in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or, if such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction thereof, the federal district court of the State of Delaware, will be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of our company, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer, other employee or stockholder of our company to our company or our stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL or the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws or as to which the DGCL confers jurisdiction on the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine of the State of Delaware, and the federal district courts of the United States will be the exclusive forum for any complaint asserting a cause of action arising under the Securities Act.

Limitations on Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Subject to certain exceptions, the DGCL authorizes corporations to limit or eliminate the personal liability of directors and certain officers to corporations and their stockholders for monetary damages for breaches of their fiduciary duties. Under the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, our directors and officers will not be personally liable to our company or any of our stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer. Currently, the DGCL does not permit exculpation of: (a) a director or officer for breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to our company or our stockholders; (b) a director or officer for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) a director for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions, as provided under Section 174 of the DGCL; (d) a director or officer for any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; or (e) an officer in any action by or in the right of the corporation. Under the Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws, we are required to indemnify each of our directors and certain of our officers, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, subject to certain exceptions.

In addition, the selling stockholders may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time and from time to time, shares of common stock in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, after the date on which it provided the information set forth in the table below.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

As of the date of this prospectus, we have not been advised by the selling stockholders as to any plan of distribution. Distributions of the shares of common stock by the selling stockholders, or by the selling stockholders' permitted transferees, may from time to time be offered for sale either directly by such individual, or through underwriters, dealers or agents or on any exchange on which the shares of common stock may from time to time be traded, in the over-the-counter market, or in independently negotiated transactions or otherwise. We will bear the fees and expenses incurred by us in connection with our obligation to register the shares of common stock pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement. If the shares are sold through underwriters or broker-dealers, we will not be responsible for underwriting discounts or commissions or agents' commissions.

The methods by which the shares of common stock may be sold include:

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker dealer solicits purchasers;
- one or more underwritten offerings;
- block trades in which the broker dealer will attempt to sell the shares of common stock as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker dealer as principal and resale by the broker dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- settlement of short sales;
- distribution to employees, members, partners or stockholders of the selling stockholders;
- transactions through broker dealers that agree with the selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares of common stock at a stipulated price per security;
- through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;
- by pledge to secured debts and other obligations;
- delayed delivery arrangements;
- to or through underwriters or broker-dealers;
- in "at the market" offerings, as defined in Rule 415 under the Securities Act, at negotiated prices, at prices prevailing at the time of sale or at prices related to such prevailing market prices, including sales made directly on a national securities exchange or sales made through a market maker other than on an exchange or other similar offerings through sales agents;
- a combination of any such methods of sale; or
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may also sell the shares of common stock under Rule 144 or any other exemption from registration under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus.

In addition, a selling stockholder that is an entity may elect to make a pro rata in-kind distribution of securities to its members, partners or stockholders pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part by delivering a prospectus with a plan of distribution. Such members, partners or stockholders would thereby receive freely tradeable securities pursuant to the distribution through a registration statement. To the extent a distributee is our affiliate (or to the extent otherwise required by law), we may, at our option, file a prospectus supplement in order to permit the distributees to use the prospectus to resell the securities acquired in the distribution.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of our shares of common stock, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated, but, except as set forth in a supplement to this prospectus, in the case of an agency transaction not in excess of a customary brokerage commission in compliance with Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, (“FINRA”), Rule 5110; and in the case of a principal transaction a markup or markdown in compliance with FINRA Rule 2121.

To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended or supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution. In connection with the sale of our shares of common stock or interests therein, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of our shares of common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling stockholders may also sell our shares of common stock short and deliver these shares to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these shares. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or create one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of securities offered by this prospectus, which securities such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction). The selling stockholders may also pledge securities to a broker-dealer or other financial institution, and, upon a default, such broker-dealer or other financial institution, may effect sales of the pledged securities pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

In effecting sales, broker-dealers or agents engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions, discounts or concessions from the selling stockholders in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale.

Any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the securities may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares of our shares of common stock purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

We are required to pay certain fees and expenses, incurred by us incident to the registration of our shares of common stock. We and the selling stockholders have agreed to indemnify each other against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

The resale securities will be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers if required under applicable state securities laws. In addition, in certain states, the resale securities covered hereby may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the resale shares of our shares of common stock may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to our shares of common stock for the applicable restricted period, as defined in Regulation M, prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the selling stockholders will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of our shares of common stock by the selling stockholders or any other person. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling stockholders and have informed them of the need to deliver a copy of this prospectus to each purchaser at or prior to the time of the sale (including by compliance with Rule 172 under the Securities Act).

At the time a particular offer of securities is made, if required, a prospectus supplement will be distributed that will set forth the number of securities being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent, the purchase price paid by any underwriter, any discount, commission and other item constituting compensation, any discount, commission or concession allowed or reallocated or paid to any dealer, and the proposed selling price to the public.

There can be no assurances that the selling stockholders will sell any or all of the Securities offered under this prospectus.

LEGAL MATTERS

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP will pass upon the validity of any securities being offered by this prospectus. Any underwriters, dealers or agents will be represented by their own legal counsel.
